If you are a practicing Catholic, we ask that you provide a Parish Verification Form signed by your Pastor. A practicing Catholic is defined as attending Mass faithfully each weekend and on Holy Days of Obligation and donating your time, talent and/or treasure to your Parish to demonstrate stewardship. Families are responsible for getting the Parish Verification Form, signed and returned to the school office by July 1st! SIGNED FORMS can be scanned/emailed to info@stcbs.org or dropped off in the school office. A Parish Verification Form is required to receive the Parish Subsidy. This form is required for St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Parishioners as well.

Parish Subsidy

Who is entitled to the Parish Subsidy?

1. Catholic Families that are registered and participating at one of the local affiliated Catholic Parishes.
2. You must meet the guidelines set by your pastor to be subsidized. Note: If you do not meet the requirements set by your pastor, he may not sign the form and you are responsible for any tuition and fee balance.
3. The Catholic Subsidy applies only to Kindergarten through Grade 8.
4. A Parish Subsidy Form must be completed and turned in to the school office by JULY 1st!
(The Parishes encourage those Catholic families of means to pay the full non-subsidized cost.)

Tuition and other amounts due are paid using a FACTS Payment Plan

FACTS is a nationally recognized management company for schools comprised of three components:

1) Grant and Aid assistance, 2) Tuition and fee payment plans, and 3) Student information system/gradebook.

You may pay tuition, comprehensive fee, transportation fee, and any other associated school fees using a FACTS Payment Plan as follows:

- One payment due July, 2024.
- Two payments due July, 2024 and January, 2025
- Ten monthly payments beginning in August, 2024 and ending May, 2025

PLEASE NOTE: THE DIOCESE REQUIRES ALL FAMILIES TO HAVE A FACTS PAYMENT PLAN.
